

Ronald the Rhino Comic Strip

Create a comic strip to retell the story of 'Ronald the Rhino'. Remember to draw the main events of the story and to add character's speech.

Ronald the Rhino Comic Strip

Answers

Children's comic strips should retell the story in their own words (these don't need to rhyme) and include all the main events:

Suggested main events that might feature in a comic strip about Ronald the Rhino:

- Ronald looking sad in the forest.
- Ronald deciding to be a leopard and covering himself in mud.
- Leopard telling Ronald he can't be a leopard.
- Ronald deciding to be a snake and trying to slide across the ground.
- Python telling him he can't be a snake.
- Ronald sitting with his head hanging low.
- Python and Leopard having an idea.
- The three friends walking through the forest.
- Ronald seeing himself in the river.