Questions

1) How have Arthur's feelings towards Stanley changed now? Why?

Arthur's feelings have changed towards Stanley now as he is no longer jealous of him. He feels sorry for Stanley that he is having a hard time and wants to help him and be his friend.

2) Who is Stanley referring to when he said 'the folks'?

When Stanley says 'the folks' he is referring to mum and dad. He doesn't want them to know how upset he is.

3) Why are both Arthur and Stanley happier by the end of the chapter?

Both Arthur and Stanley are happier by the end of the chapter because Stanley is back to normal so he won't be called names anymore. Arthur is happier as he has helped Stanley with his bicycle pump idea and now they are good friends

4) Did you enjoy the book? Why?

Your own opinion.
